

CRRU launches in Ireland

Conor Egan (Bayer Environmental Science), Tony O'Dowd (Killgerm), Mark Lynch (CRRU Ireland chairman), Minister of Agriculture, Food and the Marine, Simon Coveney TD, Eanna Ni Lamhna (CRUU PR officer), Joe Lynch (BASF Ireland) and Noel Delaney (Irish Farmers Association)

The Campaign for Responsible Rodenticide Use (CRRU) has launched an autonomous counterpart in the Republic of Ireland under the chairmanship of Dr Mark Lynch, former senior inspector at the Pesticides Control Service.

In the UK and Ireland alike, CRRU pursues the same objective of effective and sustainable rural rodent control with no unacceptable impacts on wildlife and the wider environment.

Meanwhile in the UK, CRRU has gained a tenth member with Barrettine Environmental Health recently re-joining the group which now comprises BASF Pest Control Solutions, Bayer, Bell Laboratories, Killgerm Chemicals, LiphaTech, Lodi-UK, PelGar International, Rentokil Initial, Syngenta and Barrettine.
